

PTA Council Holds Talks by Candidates

Dr. Wendell C. Black, president of Los Angeles Harbor College, will be moderator at the Torrance Council PTA program Oct. 25 at South High cafeteria.

Purpose of the program is to acquaint South Bay citizens with candidates running for state superintendent of public instruction. They are Dr. Ralph Richardson and Dr. Max Rafferty.

Dr. Black was educated at Washburn University, Kansas; Kansas State; University of Redlands; and University of Southern California.

He has been an instructor since 1931 and president of Harbor College since 1958.

"Torrance Council PTA extends an open invitation to all South Bay residents to attend this meeting at 8 p.m." Mrs. Robert Hagenbaugh, council president, said. Information can be obtained by calling Mrs. Hagenbaugh, at FA 8-2633 or Mrs. Benjamin Hatfield, DA 4-5983.

Ballot Measures To Be Discussed At Open Meeting

Measures to appear on the ballot in the November election will be discussed at 7:45 p.m. Oct. 30 at the First Methodist Church of Torrance, 1551 El Prado. The meeting is open to the public.

Presenting leading arguments of proponents and opponents of the 25 issues dealing with state government will be the Provisional League of Women Voters of Torrance.

Following presentation of the pros and cons of the measures, members of the voters service committee will answer questions.

Chairman is Mrs. William Geissert. Her committee includes Mimes, Ernest Knapp, Irving Boxer, Austin Woodward, Donald Finklestein, Stanley Lieber, J. D. Langley, Bernard Dubrow and Joan Thompson.

The league is a non-partisan group dedicated to promoting citizen responsibility in government, according to Mrs. Albert Nadel, Torrance Provisional group president. Membership is open to all women of voting age.
